

CASE STUDY

NURSERY & AGRICULTURE

SupplyOne built on an established relationship with a growing chemical supplier serving the nursery and agriculture industry, providing janitorial and facility supplies while extending support across additional locations and divisions.

OVERVIEW

Following a recent acquisition, a chemical supplier serving the nursery and agriculture industry continued to expand its operations. SupplyOne had an established relationship with the organization and an opportunity to provide consistent facility support as its needs and footprint grew.

THE SOLUTION

SupplyOne built on the existing relationship to provide consistent support as the customer continued to grow:
